The Rev. Melba V. Chaney, Pastor

— Obituary —

Junious Edwards departed this life on June 24, 1993 at the Millard Fillmore Hospital.

He was born in Jasper County, Mississippi on January 22, 1909 to the late Hagar (Edwards) Cooper and Louis Edwards. He married the late Jannie M. Edwards and they moved to Buffalo, New York with their family in 1942.

Mr. Edwards joined Lincoln Memorial under the pastorate of the late Rev. William H. Horner. Actively involved in the church, he served on the Board of Trustees and he was always eager to work on construction projects or making the necessary repairs to the church building. He was also a devoted and faithful member of the Senior Choir which was under the direction of the late Mrs. Emma J. Horner.

Mr. Edwards was a master welder by trade and he worked for many years with the Boilermakers Union.

He leaves to mourn his loving memory: two children: Frank Edwards of Oakland, and Minnie L. Jones of San Bernadino, California; five grandchildren and many great grandchildren; two sisters: Florida Pearson and Mary Beason of Buffalo; and a host of other relatives and friends.
